Where a student has been granted an exception, the student must use their mobile phone for the purpose for which the exception was granted, and in a safe, ethical and responsible manner.

Secure storage

Mobile phones owned by students at Sunbury College are considered valuable items and are brought to school at the owner's (student's or parent and carer's) risk. Students are encouraged not to bring a mobile phone to school unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Please note that Sunbury College does not have accident insurance for accidental property damage or theft. Students and their parents and carers are encouraged to obtain appropriate insurance for valuable items. Refer to Sunbury College's Personal Property Policy.

Where students bring a mobile phone to school, Sunbury College will provide secure storage. Secure storage is storage that cannot be readily accessed by those without permission to do so. At Sunbury College students are required to store their phones in their lockers or handed into the school administration office to be placed in a lockable cupboard.
